

IMAGE RESOLUTION ENHANCEMENT

The Image Resolution Enhancement technology generally relates to the modification of images to be displayed on a video or printed display to improve the perceived image quality beyond the basic pixel resolution of the display original image.