Summary Financial Results

For the Three Months Ended June 30, 2013 and 2012

Revenues (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Change
	2013	2012	$	%
Revenues	$ 23,110	$ 50,484	$ (27,374)	(54)%
New revenue agreements	43	38	—	—
Licensing programs generating revenues	28	27	—	—
Licensing programs with initial revenues	3	7	—	—

In the second quarter of 2013, three licensees individually accounted for 41%, 20% and 12% of revenues recognized, as compared to one licensee individually accounting for 72% of revenues recognized during the second quarter of 2012.

Cost of Revenues (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Change
	2013	2012	$	%
Inventor royalties	$ 5,610	$ 9,573	$ (3,963)	(41)%
Contingent legal fees	4,024	6,607	(2,583)	(39)%

Second quarter 2013 total revenues, less inventor royalties expense and contingent legal fees expense was $13,476,000, or 58% of second quarter 2013 revenues, as compared to $34,304,000, or 68% of revenues in the comparable prior year quarter. The decrease in total revenues, less inventor royalties expense and contingent legal fees expense as a percentage of total revenues was primarily due to a significantly higher percentage of revenues recognized during the three months ended June 30, 2012 having lower or no corresponding contingent legal fee obligations, as compared to the revenues recognized during the three months ended June 30, 2013.

The economic terms of the patent portfolio acquisition agreements and contingent legal fee arrangements, if any, including royalty rates, if any, contingent fee rates, if any, and other terms, vary across the patent portfolios owned or controlled by our operating subsidiaries. These expenses fluctuate period to period, based on the amount of revenues recognized each period, the terms and conditions of revenue agreements executed each period and the mix of specific patent portfolios with varying economic terms and characteristics generating revenues each period.

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Change
	2013	2012	$	%
Litigation and licensing expenses - patents	$ 9,918	$ 5,268	$ 4,650	88%

Litigation and licensing expenses-patents in the second quarter 2013 increased due primarily to an increase in strategic patent portfolio prosecution costs, an increase in international enforcement costs, and higher net levels of litigation support and third-party technical consulting expenses associated with our continued investment in ongoing and new licensing and enforcement programs commenced since the end of the comparable prior year quarter. We expect patent-related legal expenses to continue to fluctuate period to period in connection with our current and future patent acquisition, development, licensing and enforcement activities.

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Change
	2013	2012	$	%
Amortization of patents	$ 12,578	$ 5,393	$ 7,185	133%

Second quarter 2013 non-cash patent amortization charges increased due primarily to an increase in amortization expense related to new patent portfolios acquired since the end of the prior year period totaling $3,990,000 and an increase in scheduled patent amortization related to patent portfolios acquired in the latter portion of the prior year quarter totaling $2,097,000.

Other Operating Expenses (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Change
	2013	2012	$	%
Marketing, general and administrative expenses	$ 6,916	$ 5,903	$ 1,013	17%

Total marketing, general and administrative expenses	$ 13,184	$ 11,903	$ 1,281	11%

Second quarter 2013 marketing, general and administrative expenses increased due primarily to a net increase in licensing, business development, and engineering personnel since the end of the prior year quarter and a net increase in corporate facilities and general and administrative costs.

Income Taxes:

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Change
	2013	2012	$	%
Benefit from (provision for) income taxes (in thousands)	$ 9,050	$ (3,494)	$ 12,544	(359)%
Effective tax rate	40%	35%

The tax benefit (provision) for the second quarter of 2013, as compared to the prior year quarter, included the impact of the following:

- A tax benefit for the second quarter of 2013 which reflects the application of an estimated annual effective tax rate of approximately 40% to the GAAP pre-tax net loss reported for the second quarter of 2013.
- $1.5 million of foreign withholding taxes withheld by the applicable foreign tax authority on revenue agreements executed with third party licensees domiciled in certain foreign jurisdictions. The 2013 tax provision contemplates utilization of the foreign taxes withheld in 2013 as a credit against income tax expense calculated for financial statement purposes.
- Noncash tax expense calculated without the excess benefit related to the exercise and vesting of equity-based incentive awards, which was credited to additional paid-in capital, not taxes payable, totaling $138,000 and $3.2 million for the second quarter of 2013 and 2012, respectively.

INFORMATION ABOUT NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

As used herein, “GAAP” refers to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. To supplement our consolidated financial statements prepared and presented in accordance with GAAP, this earnings release includes financial measures, including (1) non-GAAP net income and (2) non-GAAP Earnings Per Share (“EPS”), that are considered non-GAAP financial measures as defined in Rule 101 of Regulation G promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Generally, a non-GAAP financial measure is a numerical measure of a company's historical or future performance, financial position, or cash flows that either excludes or includes amounts that are not normally excluded or included in the most directly comparable measure calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP. The presentation of this non-GAAP financial information is not intended to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for, or superior to, the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with GAAP.

We use these non-GAAP financial measures for internal financial and operational decision making purposes and as a means to evaluate period-to-period comparisons of the performance and results of operations of our core business. Our management believes that these non-GAAP financial measures provide meaningful supplemental information regarding the performance of our core business by excluding non-cash stock compensation charges, non-cash patent amortization charges and excess benefit related non-cash tax expense, that may not be indicative of our recurring core business operating results. These non-GAAP financial measures also facilitate management's internal planning and comparisons to our historical performance and liquidity. We believe these non-GAAP financial measures are useful to investors as they allow for greater transparency with respect to key metrics used by management in its financial and operational decision making and are used by our institutional investors and the analyst community to help them analyze the performance and operational results of our core business.

Non-GAAP Net income and EPS. We define non-GAAP net income as net income calculated in accordance with GAAP, plus non-cash stock compensation charges, non-cash patent amortization charges and excess benefit related non-cash tax expense. Non-GAAP EPS is defined as non-GAAP net income divided by the weighted average outstanding shares, on a fully-diluted basis, calculated in accordance with GAAP, for the respective reporting period.

Due to the inherent volatility in stock prices, the use of estimates and assumptions in connection with the valuation and expensing of share-based awards and the variety of award types that companies can issue under FASB ASC Topic 718, management believes that providing a non-GAAP financial measure that excludes non-cash stock compensation allows investors to make meaningful comparisons between our recurring core business operating results and those of other companies, as well as providing our management with a critical tool for financial and operational decision making and for evaluating our own period-to-period recurring core business operating results. Similarly, due to the variability associated with the timing and amount of patent acquisition payments and estimates inherent in the capitalization and amortization of patent acquisition costs, management believes that providing a non-GAAP financial measure that excludes non-cash patent amortization charges allows investors to make meaningful comparisons between our recurring core business operating results and those of other companies, and also provides our management with a useful tool for financial and operational decision making and for evaluating our own period-to-period recurring core business operating results. Lastly, for financial reporting purposes, tax expense is required to be calculated without the excess tax benefit related to the exercise and vesting of equity-based incentive awards, however, the deduction related to the exercise and vesting of equity-based incentive awards is available to offset taxable income on our consolidated tax returns. Accordingly, the non-cash tax expense calculated without the excess benefit for financial statement purposes is credited to additional paid-in capital, not taxes payable, and does not represent a cash tax obligation. Management believes that providing a non-GAAP financial measure that excludes excess benefit related non-cash tax expense allows investors to assess our net results and the economic impact of income taxes based largely on cash tax obligations, make more meaningful comparisons between our recurring core business net results and those of other companies, and also provides our management with a useful tool for financial and operational decision making and for evaluating our own period-to-period recurring core business net results.

There are a number of limitations related to the use of non-GAAP net income and EPS versus net income and EPS calculated in accordance with GAAP. For example, non-GAAP net income excludes significant non-cash stock compensation charges, non-cash patent amortization charges and excess benefit related non-cash tax expense that are recurring, and will continue to be recurring for the foreseeable future. In addition, non-cash stock compensation is a critical component of our employee compensation programs and non-cash patent amortization reflects the cost of certain patent portfolio acquisitions, amortized on a straight-line basis over the estimated economic useful life of the respective patent portfolio, and may reflect the acceleration of amortization related to recoupable up-front patent portfolio acquisition costs. Management compensates for these limitations by providing specific information regarding the GAAP amounts excluded from non-GAAP net income and EPS and evaluating non-GAAP net income and EPS in conjunction with net income and EPS calculated in accordance with GAAP.

The accompanying table provided below provides a reconciliation of the non-GAAP financial measures presented to the most directly comparable financial measures prepared in accordance with GAAP.

These statements are based upon our current expectations and speak only as of the date hereof. Our ability to become the licensing partner for companies, and our actual results may differ materially and adversely from those expressed in any forward-looking statements as a result of various factors and uncertainties, including the effect of the global economic downturn on technology companies, the ability to successfully develop licensing programs and attract new business, rapid technological change in relevant markets, changes in demand for current and future intellectual property rights, legislative, regulatory and competitive developments addressing licensing and enforcement of patents and/or intellectual property in general and general economic conditions. Our Annual Report on Form 10-K, recent and forthcoming Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, recent Current Reports on Forms 8-K and 8-K/A, and other SEC filings discuss some of the important risk factors that may affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.
