ACACIA TECHNOLOGIES ACQUIRES RIGHTS TO PATENTS FOR WIRELESS TRAFFIC INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Newport Beach, CA. – (BUSINESS WIRE) October 10, 2006 – Acacia Research Corporation (Nasdaq: ACTG; CBMX) announced today that Acacia Patent Acquisition Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary that is part of the Acacia Technologies group, a leader in technology licensing, has acquired rights to patents relating to wireless traffic information technology from TrafficGauge, Inc., www.trafficgauge.com.

“Acacia continues to grow its base of future revenues by adding new patent portfolios,” commented Paul Ryan, Acacia Chairman and CEO. “As our licensing success grows, more companies are selecting us as their partner for the licensing of their patented technologies,” concluded Mr. Ryan.

“These patents are the result of our early work in traffic information delivery technology,” said Ryan Peterson, TrafficGauge CEO. “After extensive due diligence, we believe that Acacia is the best partner we could find in monetizing our patent portfolio,” added Mr. Peterson.

This patented technology generally relates to transmitting, receiving and displaying traffic information on portable handheld and mobile displays. It covers a variety of wireless distribution methods, such as FM radio and satellite, as well as the devices used to display the traffic maps. This technology enables users to identify traffic congestion and can be used with in-vehicle navigation displays and portable handheld units such as cell phones and PDA’s.
